Please note: If the application is successful, each student will only be given one offer. If this offer is declined, students are required to find accommodation on their own. A room typically costs DKK 3.000-4.500 per month. Besides, you have to pay a deposit (typically corresponding to three month's rent). You will get the deposit back when you move out, if the room or flat is in the same condition as when you moved in. Private apartments are often two times as expensive, depending on size, quality and location.
